French and English seminary for Young Ladies, corner of E and 9th streets, Washington city.

THE location of this seminary is one of the most desirable in the city, on account of its healthy and airy position. The house is large and commodious, with ample grounds and other facilities for amusement and recreation. The principal, so well and favorably known in this city, and in New York, from her long experience in teaching, hopes to give entire satisfaction to all who may confide their daughters to her care. She is a native of France, and familiar with its language and literature, and conversant with the best and casiest modes of imparting to her pupils a perfect knowledge of that language, so that they can not only read and write, but speak it fluently. She has secured able assistants for various departments, so that all branches of an English as well as French education will be thoroughly taught. Pupils who reside in the family have the peculiar advantages of hearing, and conversing at all times in the French language, and of perfecting themselves in the science of music, being under the surveillance of an experienced teacher. The course of instruction, besides the usual elementary branches, includes all the higher studies pursued in the most approved northern seminaries. The discipline is mild and affectionate, yet decided, and is maintained by appeals to the affections and conscience of the pupil; it is designed, by a proper development and cultivation of the better qualities of the heart, to bind more affectionately the pupil to her teacher, and by it to secure obedience. As sound physical, moral, and intellectual improvement and culture, are the great objects desired, it is the aim of the principal not so much to crowd the memory with words, as to draw forth and train the systematic and vigorous action, the observing, reflecting, and active powers of the mind. The charges to those who reside in the family are, for board and tuition in all the branches of French and English, §200 per a may been duly received and brought to the notice of the appointing power. To such as may favor him in this particular branch of his agency, he cannot fail to give entire satisfaction.

The undersigned will also attend to any claims or other business which may be intrusted to his care and supervision, before any of the departments of the caused accesses.

W ASHINGTON CITY DYING ESTABtown, would most respectfully inform the citizens of Washington and vicinity that he has taken the stand at the corner of 11th street and Pennsylvania avenue, south side, formerly occupied by J. Berkley, where he invites his old customers, and as many new ones as may be pleased to try his skill in the art of dying silk, woollen, and cotton goods, and scloth dressing. The preference which has been given him by a large portion of the citizens of Washington, in carrying their work to Georgetown, has induced him, for the convenience of the public, and with a view to enlarge his business, and by an exhibition of superior work to extend his reputation, to take a stand in the metropolis, where he is prepared to receive and execute all manner of ladies and gentemen's apparel in a superior stile. Shawls of every material and texture cleansed, bleached, or dyed, and the border preserved.

himself to the public, as he has long been known and extensively patronized from every part of the country. He has lately built and fitted up an extensive and complete dye-house, and is prepared to do all kinds of work with despatch, and in a style not to be surpassed in this country. He especially calls the attention of gentlemen to the superior manner in which coats and pants, and gentlemen's apparel generally, are done. The shape and set of the coat are not in the slightest degree injured; and the color is warranted to stand, and not in the least to rub. All kinds of work will be thankfully received, and done on moderate terms.

All kinds of work will be thankfully received, and done on moderate terms.

N. B.—The present is the best season for cleanaing and dying curtains; and he would call the attention of boarding-house keepers, tavern-keepers, and others having curtains to cleanse or color, to the present, as a more propitious time than the fall. The work can be done better in good weather; and there is less hurry in summer.

To disminish the butterf to contraction of proper quality, or sufficiently well prepared, the Secretary of the Navy has appointed two agents, who will, when requested, inspect hemp that may be prepared and intended to fulfil contracts to be made under this advertisement. One of these agents will inspect the hemp that may be sent to Louisville, Kentucky, and the other that which may be sen to St. Louis, in Missouri. These agents will be furnished with samples of the Riga Rein hemp, excepting for hemp fully prepared for spinning, and with the means of testing the strength of hemp, and will be ready to give all information in their power, to enable contractors to have their hemp properly prepared, and to ascertain the strength and character of it, before the expense of sending it to the navy-yard is incurred. It must be distinctly understood, however, that the inspection and opinion of these agents is merely to diminish the risk to contractors, by furnishing useful information. The only inspection by which the hemp can be finally received and paid for will be that at the navy-yard where it is to be delivered.

In addition to the bonds which will be required for the faithful performance of the contract, ten per centum will be deducted from the amount of all bills for deliveries, and retained until the completion of the contract, as additional security for its performance. The remaining ninety per centum will be paid within thirty days after bills, duly approved, shall be presented to the navy agent at Boston, Massachusetts.

To be published once a week for four weeks in the following newspapers, viz: The Globe and Intelligencer, Washington, D. C.; Morning Post, Pituburgh, Pa.; Union, Harrisburg, Pa.; Harnford, Conn.; Journal of Commerce, Morning Rows, Evening Post, New York, N. The department reserves the right to reject all bids from persons who have heretofore failed to execute their contracts.

Bonds, with two approved suretices in one-third the satismated amount of the respective contracts, will be required; and ten per centum in addition will be withheld from the amount of all payments on account thereof, as collateral security, in addition to the bond given, to secure its performance, and not in any event to be paid until it is in all respects complied with; and ninety per centum of the amount of all deliveries made will be paid by the Navy Agent within thirty days after bills duly authenticated shall have been presented to him.
